School Activities

- Grandparents Day will be Sept 7th in the afternoon. Volunteers will be needed. Jennifer Weiner is chairing this for the last year and looking for a volunteer to shadow her for next year.
- Sarah Hess is looking for a theme for the Halloween float. We can reuse the float from last year.

Public Relations – the school brochure is ready to go to print with the exception of one photo to be approved of all school mass.

Principal's Report

- All staff received CPR training
- Backpack blessing and school picnic was a success. Thank you to Mary Jo, Jean Connoyer, The Bairds, Deacon Jay and all other volunteers that made the event a success. (Welcome to new parents and need volunteers to help guide new parents) THANK YOU MRS. HEIL for the hotdogs!
- Mr. Robertson is the new 4th grade teacher. Welcome, we are very glad to have you.
- Virtue Based Discipline (VBRD) program is ongoing this school year. Love is the virtue of the year. Each kid has a virtue based family that will stay the same year after year. Oct 10th is the first of quarterly family virtue nights (Jan 9, March 13, and May 15)
- The library is getting a HUGE makeover. Stem tables, century areas, computers hooked up to the library catalog, flexible seating. The library is scheduled to open to kids after Labor Day. We need more volunteers since the library will be open 5 days a week this year.
- School board has volunteer opportunities to help with homework help at aftercare. The need is from 2:45-3:30. Idea was presented for older students to help – Mrs. Heil is working on this idea.
- School improvement goal, STEM (Mission to Mars was last year.)
- Next Tuesday, Aug 29th at 8:15 is first all school mass.
- Club schedule will be up on the website and these should be available after Labor Day

- 7th grade parents – meeting Aug 29th at 6:30 in Ms. Wielgus' room
- Mega raffle idea (Early Bird prizes) 4000 tickets at $100 a piece – Quincey was very successful – Maggie Kohl will be heading up the committee, please reach out if you want to join.
